Washington. Feb. 8.—A fresh study of President Wilson's latest address to Congress has turned the German situation over to the parsing experts in Washington rather than to the military authorities. The peculiar use of the word the first than to the military authorities. The peculiar use of the word and congress distinguished in the most of the more in the United States and Canada than any other cough remedy. The way it takes hold of an obetinate cough, giving immediate relief, will make you regret that you never tried it before. It is a truly dependable cough remedy that should be kept handy in every home, to use at the first sign of a cough during the night or day time.

Any druggist can supply you with 2% ounces of Pinex (50 conts worth). Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 54 cents and you have a full pint of the most effective remedy you ever used.

The quick, lasting relief you get from this excellent cough syrup will really surprise you. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon-your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whoping cough and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, combined with guaincol and is famous the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask for "21½ bronchies of Pinex" with full directions of Pinex of

HOW SHE GOT HIM

By ELEANOR MARSH

"I wish," said Mrs. Perkins to her friend Mrs. Oglethorpe, "that Harry would take a wife. He needs something to settle him, and that is the only thing that will do it."

"Is he opposed to marriage?" "He won't listen to it." "What is his objection?"

"Why, you know, Harry inherited all his grandfather's estate, nearly a million, and he has been a target for marriageable girls ever since. They have simply disgusted him."

Mrs. Oglethorpe said nothing for some time. She was thinking. Finally she broke slience.

"I think I know of a plan that will settle him. You know Madge Clavering? Well, you send Harry to me for the first fortnight in April. I'll have Madge with me, and with a little coaching I believe she will do what you wish.

"Madge is a good girl, and I would be glad to see Harry settle down with Henry Perkins, through his mother's influence, was induced to go to Mrs. Oglethorpe's. Madge was on hand, ready for business.

"I have a young girl with me," said Mrs. Oglethorpe, "whom I wish you to meet. You will find her somewhat Congress Hurries Legislation, Adding to depressed, but I trust association with you will make her feel mon, cheer-

"Where is Williams college? I never heard of it. I suppose it is one of the small institutions. Mr. Gibbs gradunted at Harvard. He led his class for four years and took most of the prizes. He was president of his class and class orator.

"Was he given to athletics?" "Yes; he was captain of the football and baseball teams and stroke oar in the university crew.

"Anything else?" Madge looked offended. On her face are you to sneer at the exploits of a remarkable man?"

Now, Madge was the first girl who had not literally thrown herself at Henry Perkins, and she was constantly crying him down by comparison. He was irritated; his self esteem was injured. For the first time in his life he hungered for a bit of encomium from a girl. When he found that he could not excite her admiration be endeavored to excite her sympathy. He had his troubles like every one else, and he told them to her. In this he was more successful. If she could him. This brought them a trifle closes together. That was the beginning of it. The next time Mr. Perkins longed for sympathy he sought Miss Clavering. She had become sufficiently weaned from Mr. Gibbs to be very cordial to Mr. Perkins, and when the latter told her his troubles she burst into tears.

One day when Mrs, Perkins and Mrs, Oglethorpe were together the former

Report Was That Peace Message Was Sent to the Germans

Washington, Feb. 8.-Secretary Danels emphatically denies the story that he assisted at sending the Bryan peace appeal to Germany by permitting the use of the Arlington wireless station.

A story in the Boston Herald said that a message signed by a close friend of Ambassador Von Bernstorff had been sent to Germany from a government controlled wireless station with the permission of Secretary Daniels. The message, said to have been for publication in a German newspaper, was described as being virtually a direct appeal to German officialdom to take no action that bight precipitate war between Germany and the United States.

In the federal penal code of 1910 under the heading of "Crimes Against the Government' is a section under which the alleged act, if committed, might come. It follows:

"Every citizen of the United States whether actually resident or abiding within the same, or in any place sub ject to the jurisdiction thereof, or in any foreign country, without the permission or authority of the government, directly or indirectly, commences or carries on any verbal or written correspondence or the earth.
